

Forum on Metals and Sediments in the Animas River

Friday, November 13th, Fort Lewis College Campus

Hear from experts about how metals and sediments move through the environment, how we monitor them, and what we can't know about the impacts of the Gold King Mine Spill.

Forum events

all events will be held on campus at Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO

By invitation only, Chemistry 130

2:30-3:30 pm FLC student forum

4:00-5:00 pm professional stakeholder forum

Open to all, Ballroom Student Union

5:15 pm social, refreshments served

5:40 pm panel presentations

6:30-7:00 pm questions and discussion

Panelists: Dr. Joe Ryan, Professor, Department of Civil, Environmental, and Architectural Engineering, University of Colorado Boulder, and Dr. Ken Williams, Earth system scientist, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, Department of Energy, Dr. Gary Gianniny, Professor, Department of Geology, Fort Lewis College

Organizers: Dr. Heidi Steltzer, Associate Professor, Department of Biology and Dr. Callie Cole, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Fort Lewis College

Questions: Dr. Heidi Steltzer, steltzer\_h@fortlewis.edu